Regional Alumni Networks: Regional Volunteer

Mission Statement
The Office of Alumni Relations (OAR) leads the university’s efforts to strengthen and promote an invested alumni community that inspires lifelong loyalty and advances GW.

Volunteer Position Summary & Purpose
Engaged alumni volunteers are a key component of a successful regional alumni network. The regional alumni networks are led by alumni volunteers who wish to reconnect with GW and with fellow alumni in their geographic area. In an effort to establish validity, consistency, and effective connections, we expect regional volunteers to:

- Understand and embrace the mission and values of the university and OAR
- Positively represent and promote the university in the region.
- Facilitate engagement between alumni and the university through volunteer-led outreach, communications, and events.
- Ensure that the regional alumni network events are accessible to all area alumni.

Major Duties & Responsibilities

- Serve as the primary university ambassador(s) on behalf of the region
- Develop action plans and events appropriate to your region in support of OAR’s and the university's strategies
- Increase participation through personal (phone or email) outreach to local alumni
- Recruit alumni volunteers through events and personal outreach
- Utilize email and social media to increase awareness of the regional alumni network and its activities
- Lead and coordinate all aspects of planning and executing regional events in a given fiscal year.
- Promote the philanthropic efforts of the university at events, including asking alumni to make an annual gift to GW
- Regional alumni networks with five or more volunteers will operate as a committee with a chair or co-chairs. Chairs/co-chairs have the additional responsibility of serving as the primary liaison between the network, the committee, and OAR

For more information on the roles and opportunities within the areas listed above please contact your respective OAR staff liaison.
